BUILDING BLOCKS

"But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I will come forth as gold. My feet have closely followed His steps; I have kept to His way without turning aside." Job 23:10-11

"Do you see what I see?" Remember that repetitive line from the Christmas song, The Little Drummer Boy? If God is omnipresent---present everywhere at all times ("Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence?"), and God is omniscient---nothing He doesn't see and know ("There is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account."), then picture God asking, "Do you see what I see?".

From the first sin in the garden of Eden, the normal response after sinning is to hide---hide the sin and hide from the eyes of any authority whom we have sinned against. John 3: 20 says, "For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed". The modern, progressive approach to sin is to minimize it and universalize it, so that it becomes a socially acceptable norm. Is there such a thing as "a little white lie?", when we are to gird ourselves about with the belt of truth? Here's a convicting thought from William Gurnall's The Christian in Complete Armour: "Every sin is contempt of God----we think amiss of God before we do amiss against God".

Gurnall goes on to show how a person follows this "deceitfulness of sin": "First he argues in his heart that God cannot see, or at least forgets that He can see; and this deception makes him bold to sin against the Most-High God." So, what is his remedy? "Remember God no matter what you are doing." "He who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God." How do we remember God? Hebrews 11: 27 tells us that "By faith Moses forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible". Can we see the invisible? By faith we can; it is "the evidence of things not seen". "Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." "He who covers his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy."

For further meditation: Psalm 139: 1-13, Hebrews 3: 12-15; 4: 9-16,

John 3: 17-21, Proverbs 28: 13

THANK YOU

Our thanks to the following for their continued help in the church:

Donna Edmunds has taken over the card ministry. Thank you so much Donna. And thank you to Cheryl Mason who was doing this ministry.

A special thank you to those who helped with the Ham Loaf Dinner. The Women's Ministry could not support their missions without your help; they earned close to $1,000. THANK YOU TO ALL WORKERS!

Sean Edmunds is heading up the Walk for Life. Thank you Sean.

There are always a ton of people to thank for the weekly operation of our church. From the smallest to the biggest work, it is to God's glory: proof readers, custodian, yard workers, those who bring refreshments, Sunday School teachers, all teachers, church leaders, those who bring in Kleenex and hand lotions, Jr. Church and Nursery supervisors, etc. I could go on and fill the page. It boils down to THANK YOU to EVERYONE!

Mission Work, Works!

This adorable little girl received one of our Christmas shoeboxes. Which one of us packed her shoebox? It is a checkers game.

Thanks to those who helped with The Walk for Life. As of Sat., we raised $7,000.

May 19 – Pentecost Sunday
Why is Pentecost important to Christianity?

Modern Christians observe Pentecost as a holiday, not to celebrate a wheat harvest but to remember when the Holy Spirit invaded the Church in Acts 2. Vs. 1 - On Pentecost Sunday, the Holy Spirit filled the Church with power and added 3,000 new believers. The account in Acts 2 reports that, after Jesus ascended into heaven, Jesus' followers were gathered for the Feast of Harvest (aka Pentecost), and the Holy Spirit "filled the whole house where they were sitting" (Acts 2:2). "All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them" (Acts 2:4).

May 26 - Fellowship Sunday - Last Sunday of each month our church family will come together for a potluck lunch and fellowship, time of worship and a short Bible teaching. Each month will have a theme for the potluck:

- May 26 is red, white and blue theme
- * June 30 is Family Heritage Food theme

Children in Church:

Bring them to church. Saturate their lives with the Word of God. Even if they lay on the floor. Even if they need 437 goldfish and a sucker to be quiet. Even if you stand in the back swaying back and forth holding them. Even when it's hard. Even when your row looks like a small hurricane just came through. Bring them to church. Let them see you worship. Let them see you pray. Let them see you running toward the Savior ... because if they don't see and learn these things from you, who are they going to learn them from?

The world will teach them it's not a priority. The world will teach them it's okay to lay out, not to pick up their Bibles. The world will direct them so far off course, confuse them, and misinform them that just being "good" is enough. The world won't teach them about Jesus. That's our job.

Bring them to church!!

Just for Fun!!

I have no idea who came up with these, but they are so funny!

- 1) When one door closes and another door opens, you are probably in prison.
- 2) Age 60 might be the new 40, but 8:00 pm is the new midnight.
- 3) It's the start of a brand-new day, and I'm off like a herd of turtles.
- 4) The older I get, the earlier it gets late.
- 5) When I say, "The other day," I could be referring to any time between yesterday and 15 years ago.
- 6) I remember being able to get up without making sound effects.
- 7) I had my patience tested. I'm negative.
- 8) Remember, if you lose a sock in the dryer, it comes back as a Tupperware lid that doesn't fit any of your containers.
- 9) If you're sitting in public and a stranger takes the seat next to you, just stare straight ahead and say, "Did you bring the money?"
- 10) When you ask me what I am doing today, and I say "nothing," it does not mean I am free. It means I am doing nothing.
- 11) I finally got eight hours of sleep. It took me three days, but whatever.
- 12) I run like the winded.
- 13) When someone asks what I did over the weekend, I squint and ask, "Why, what did you hear?"
- 14) When you do squats, are your knees supposed to sound like a goat chewing on an aluminum can stuffed with celery?
- 15) I don't mean to interrupt people. I just randomly remember things and get really excited.
- 16) When I ask for directions, please don't use words like "East."
- 17) Don't bother walking a mile in my shoes. That would be boring. Spend 30 seconds in my head. That'll freak you right out.
- 18) Sometimes, someone unexpected comes into your life out of nowhere, makes your heart race, and changes you forever. We call those people cops.
- 19) My luck is like a bald guy who just won a comb.
